The first session in a two-part Advocacy series, this Lunch and Learn will equip participants with valuable knowledge and skills to effectively share about refugee resettlement in conversations with friends and family. Participants will learn best practices for entering conversations around resettlement, especially how to correct misinformation and reframe common messaging. This session will be recorded.

Key Topics:

- Learn the basic facts of refugee resettlement, as well as how to address common myths and misconceptions.
- Engage in healthy interpersonal conversations about welcoming newcomers in the U.S.
- Identify key principles of meaningful dialogue and bridge-building across difference.
