

LUNCH AND LEARN

A series of monthly webinars for community sponsors, volunteers, and anyone interested in refugee resettlement.

Advocacy Part II: Engaging in Your Local Community

JAN. 27

The second session in a two-part advocacy series, this Lunch and Learn will share tools for staying informed and actively engaged in everyday advocacy for refugees in our local communities. Participants will learn successful avenues and tactics for resettlement advocacy with civic, community, corporate, and national partners.

Key Topics:

- Learn the value of grassroots advocacy in supporting and welcoming refugees.
- Identify practical ways to advocate for refugees, such as contacting your local representatives and attending town hall meetings.
- Stay informed and involved through your local resettlement agency, community efforts, and educational resources.
